VFW National Home Board of Trustees

Summary of Board Structure and Trustee Responsibilities

The VFW National Home Board of Trustees is comprised of 12 elected district trustees, one Board appointed Secretary/Treasurer and 7 ex-officio trustees and serves as the governing body of the corporation.

Trustees of the National Home are responsible to; establish governing policy, set example for annual giving, fundraise, develop other resources, strategic planning, provide fiduciary oversight, hire the agency's independent auditor, financial investment advisor, and corporate attorney, recommend necessary Article of Incorporation and Bylaw changes, and promote positive community-agency relationships. Trustees are the liaison within the Departments they represent and promote the National Home and its mission to the members of the VFW and its VFW Auxiliary as well as the Military Order of the Cooties, and to other interested organizations.

Each of the 12 elected trustees represents one of 12 National Home Districts. Trustees are elected to serve a 6-year term by the National Home Life Members in the VFW Departments that comprise their National Home District. The 7 ex-officio trustees are; VFW Commander-in-Chief, Adjutant General, Quartermaster General, VFW Auxiliary National President, National Secretary-Treasurer and the MOC Supreme Commander and MOCA Supreme President.

Trustees annually elect a Board President, Sr. Vice President and a Board Secretary-Treasurer.

Members of the Executive Committee are:

- Board President
- Board Sr. Vice President
- Immediate Past Board President (if still a board member)
- Board Jr. Vice President
- Board-Elected Executive Committee Member At Large

The Executive Committee is the board body that conducts necessary business in between board meetings and reviews and acts upon properly initiated employee grievances or resident grievances, if any.

Trustees attend regular board meetings (generally 3 time per year/ virtual or in person) on the National Home campus and will serve on or chair board committees. Board Members will be expected to attend Board Meetings, National Conventions and conferences within their district to represent the VFW National Home.

On-Line submittal of applications will have a hard deadline of April 30th at 11:59pm Eastern Standard Time. You will need to have all information at the same time in order to submit your application of interest. You will need your name, address, phone number, email address, Life member number of the National Home and date of Life member acceptance, membership number of the VFW or the VFW Auxiliary, post or auxiliary dept. #, agreement to undergo a criminal background check, and a headshot or photo, if possible.
